Pathway to Success:
*Navigating the Transition from Military to Civilian Life

WASHINGTON, August 14th, 2023 - The Leader Transition Institute will host a Pathway to Success; Navigating the Transition from Military to Civilian Life kickoff on a LinkedIn / Facebook / Youtube Livestream on September 13th at 2pm EDT. The event will discuss the Leader Transition Institute's flagship program, Changing Focus: Moving From We to Me. Members will share information on how the curriculum fills the gaps left by the Department of Defense's Transition Assistance Program. Alumni testimonials will reveal the impact the program had on their lives.

LTI CEO Annie Brock said "we're looking forward to expressing the unique impact this program has on the military transition space while asking for support from the veteran assistance community, military leaders, journalists, and influencers."

The Changing Focus: Moving from We to Me program is free. Each participant receives a box of supplies with everything they need for their cohort. They complete the leading industry-recognized Maxwell Leadership Communications and Growth Impact assessment and become aware of how people perceive their communication. They'll learn how to recognize other people's behavioral cues, leading to better communication with their family, at work, and during job interviews.

Participants learn the benefits and components of living a purposeful life, and using their purpose statement and vision plan as a roadmap to their life.

Additionally, they learn about financial topics important to their transition and complete the Money Habitudes assessment to gain an understanding of their financial behaviors and habits.

The program directly addresses the challenges service members encounter as they adapt from serving in the military to reintegrating, living and working in the civilian community. LTI opens the aperture of service members and enhances their confidence as each embarks on their military transition journey.

Service members and their spouses will be able to sign up for the next cohort during the event.
